Karri Trahin Perez

It is with great sadness that the family of Karri Perez announces her unexpected passing at the age of 59 on Sunday, January 27th, 2019.

A resident of Agana, she was a tenured professor of Global Resources Management at the University of Guam. She travelled the world and consistently sought new opportunities for education, and was a vibrant, intelligent and beautiful woman who will be dearly missed by all of those who loved her.
