Lab 107B in the Computer Center and the "Information Literacy Classroom" on the Mezzanine floor in the RFK Library has been reserved for prospective graduating seniors to take the following three assessments from October 7th through October 31st:

- 1) Critical Thinking Skills Test (CCTST)
- 2) Quantitative Literacy and Reasoning Assessment (QLRA)
- 3) Threshold Achievement Test in Information Literacy (TATIL)

- Choose from among these times/dates to come take the test and expect to stay 50-55 minutes per test.

- To fulfill this administrative requirement for graduation, you must take all three tests. Failure to comply will result in the holding of transcripts and diploma upon graduation.

- To avoid test fatigue, it is highly recommended to take the tests on separate occasions.
