Lab 107B in the Computer Center on campus has been reserved from January 14th-February 9th for prospective graduation seniors to come in to take the following:

- 1) Critical Thinking Skills Test (CCTST)
- 2) Quantitative Literacy and Reasoning Assessment (QLRA)
- 3) Threshold Achievement Test in Information Literacy (TATIL)

Choose from among these times/dates to come take the test and expect to stay 50-55 minutes for each test.

To fulfill this administrative requirement for graduation, you must take all three tests. Failure to comply will result in the holding of transcripts and diploma upon graduation.

Testing Schedule: As there are three required tests to take, testing has been divided into morning and afternoon sessions. Please note that we will only administer the test specified for each date/time.

Monday-Friday Morning Sessions: Starting 8:30am, come in any time before the last test is administered. Please review schedule carefully.

Monday-Friday Afternoon Sessions: Please review schedule carefully. To take a test after 5:30pm, you must make a reservation at least 24 hours in advance.

Saturdays: You must schedule at least 24 hours in advance to take an assessment on Saturday. Please arrive 15 minutes prior to test start time as specified in calendar.
