UNIVERSITY OF GUAM Faculty Development Day Friday, February 18, 2022

Sustainability and Diversity at the University of Guam

Emcee: Dr. Chris Garcia-Santos, President, Faculty Senate
9:00am-9:20am	Opening Remarks Dr. Thomas W. Krise, President Dr. Anita Borja Enriquez, Senior Vice President & Provost
9:20am-10:20am	Keynote Address: Mr. Michael Tuncap, Co-Creator/Faculty/Researcher, Center for Guided Pathways Michael Tuncap is regarded as an expert on racial diversity, equity and inclusion. He holds degrees in Communications, Political Science, American Ethnic Studies, Public Policy, and International Affairs from the University of Washington in Seattle; a master's degree in Ethnic Studies from the University of California, Berkeley, and is ABD in Ethnic Studies from the University of California, Berkeley.
10:20am-10:30am	Faculty Ethics Quiz Question #1 (Dr. Michelle Santos)
10:30am-11:30am	1ST SESSION OF PRESENTATIONS

Sustainable Development; Challenges, Dilemmas and Opportunities for UOG – Part I

Moderator: Dr. Gerhard SchwabSpeaker: Dr. Austin SheltonDescription: Diverse impacts of climate change continue to surprise populations around the globe natural disasters around the worldhave increased in frequency and magnitude, all countries of the world agreed on sustainable development goals for 2030. In thissession we link global realities and visions with our local pursuit of the UOG mission.

Faculty Reappointment at UOG

Moderator: Dr. Velma YamashitaSpeaker: Dr. Sharleen Santos-BambaDescription: Dr. Santos-Bamba, Interim Vice Provost for Academic Excellence, Graduate Studies and Online Learning, will provideinformation about the reappointment process at UOG.

Academic Advising for Student Success

Moderator: Dr. Katharine LofdahlSpeaker: Dr. Sean BridgenDescription: Dr. Bridgen, Associate Director for External and Institutional Partnerships at NACADA: The Global Community forAcademic Advising, will provide information about academic advising for student success.

11:30am-11:40am	Faculty Faculty Ethics Quiz Question #2 (Dr. Michelle Santos) followed by BREAK

11:40am-12:40pm 2ND SESSION OF PRESENTATIONS

Sustainable Development; Challenges, Dilemmas and Opportunities for UOG – Part II

Moderator: Dr. Gerhard Schwab Speaker: Dr. Austin Shelton

Description: This presentation outlines local and regional challenges, points to dilemmas, and highlights promising projects, programs and policies. The discussion in this session will explore how our teaching, research and service at UOG can further contribute to sustainable developments in our Micronesian island region.

Promotion and Tenure at the University of Guam

Moderator:Dr. Velma YamashitaSpeaker:Dr. David GuginDescription:Dr. Gugin, Chair of the Promotion and Tenure Committee, will provide information about the promotion and tenureprocess at UOG.

Inclusive Professional Framework (IPF) for Faculty

 Moderator:
 Dr. Katharine Lofdahl
 Speaker:
 Dr. Sean Bridgen

 Description:
 In this second presentation, Dr. Bridgen will speak about this framework that was developed by the NSF funded Aspire

 Alliance.

12:40pm-12:50pm	OTR Opportunities Dr. Andrea Sant, Dr. Dean Olah, and Dr. Merissa Bunton, UOG's Online Teaching Resources team, will share information about the training opportunities that will be offered this semester.
12:50pm-1:00pm	Closing and announcement of raffle winners