

Kaua'i Community College Chancellor Search

Kaua'i Community College is in Lihu'e, nestled between the mountain ranges of Hōkōlei and Wai'ale'ale, and surrounded by the tropical waters of the Pacific Ocean. The garden island of Kaua'i abounds with beauty, from breathtaking mountain vistas, to lush green gardens, to oceanscapes swimming with life. It is a paradise visited by people from the world over, seeking to embrace its beauty and enjoy its easy going, wind-kissed pace of life.

At the heart of the island is Kaua'i Community College, the only institution of higher learning on the island. As a part of the University of Hawai'i, it serves as a foundation for our local students to begin their careers, or a pathway to transfer to the university of their choosing. It is this beloved institution, and the people who serve here, that are now seeking a new Chancellor.

Kaua'i Community College

Part of the University of Hawai'i Community College System

UH Community Colleges are comprised of four community colleges on O'ahu (Honolulu, Kapi'olani, Leeward, and Windward) and three community colleges on the neighbor islands (Hawai'i, Kaua'i, and Maui). Currently, UH Community Colleges serve more than 27,000 credit students annually, which is more than half the enrollment of the entire University of Hawai'i System. UH Community Colleges are comprehensive, convenient, and affordable. All seven community colleges offer an associate in arts degree and credits are transferable toward a baccalaureate degree to any of the three University of Hawai'i campuses (Mānoa and West O'ahu on the island of O'ahu, and Hilo on the island of Hawai'i), and other four-year universities that have established partnerships with the colleges. Most colleges also offer associate in science degrees and certificate training in career areas ranging from architectural, engineering, & CAD technologies to digital media. Overall, more than 136 academic programs are available through the UH Community College System. Established in 1964, UH Community Colleges have grown into a major force in education and economic growth in Hawai'i, serving more than 100,000 people annually through credit and noncredit programs.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY CHANCELLOR OF KAUA'I COMMUNITY COLLEGE

July 23, 2019

The University of Hawai'i Community Colleges is seeking a visionary and collaborative leader to guide Kaua'i Community College as chancellor. One of seven community colleges in Hawai'i, Kaua'i CC, has provided transfer-level academic education, career and technical education, and continuing education for over 93 years. Kaua'i CC has a student enrollment of over 1,486 (fall 2018) and faculty and staff of 168. More information about the college is in the attached brochure.

The next chancellor must embody Kaua'i CC's mission of being a kahua (foundation, site) that inspires, engages, and empowers learners and educators to enrich their community and world. We are seeking applicants interested in working in a dynamic environment and providing academic and administrative leadership.

The official advertisement and information are online at kauai.hawaii.edu/chancellor-search. Nominations and applications are being accepted for this position. Continuous recruitment; review of applications will begin on August 28, 2019 and will continue until the position is filled. For best consideration, applications should be submitted by August 27, 2019.

Please encourage qualified applicants to apply. We appreciate your attention to our request.

Sincerely,

Erika Lacro

Interim Vice President for Community Colleges
