UOG welcomes new Tritons to campus

The University of Guam welcomed more than 300 new Tritons at a New Student Orientation event on July 28. The event kicked off with opening remarks from UOG Senior Vice President and Provost Anita Borja Enriquez followed by encouraging words from the deans of the six schools and colleges. Students had the opportunity to meet their fellow Tritons and take a guided tour of the campus.

“The university is committed to providing a quality learning environment and safe environment for our students. I want to thank you and I want you to thank yourselves for making this investment in your future through a university degree with our institution,” Enriquez said.

Open Registration for Fanuchånan 2021 is ongoing. For more information, visit www.uog.edu/registration or call (671) 735-2214.
