UOG Public Administration Class Hosts Forum on Impact of Military Presence

The University of Guam School of Business and Public Administration is proud to announce its upcoming PA530 Forum, titled "Shaping Guam's Future: The Impact of Military Presence." This event will convene community leaders, policymakers, and the public to engage in critical discussions about the multifaceted effects of military presence on the island of Guam.

When: Wednesday, October 23, 2024

Time: 5:30 to 8:00 PM

Where: UOG School of Business and Public Administration, Rooms 129 & 131

Key topics for discussion include:

- Tourism: Exploring the implications for Guam's vital tourism industry
- Education: Assessing the educational landscape and opportunities for growth
- Infrastructure: Evaluating the challenges and advancements in infrastructure development
- Environmental Impacts: Understanding the ecological consequences of military activities

The forum will feature an esteemed panel of experts, including:

- Honorable Lou Leon Guerrero, Governor of Guam
- Tina Muna Barnes, Senator
- Dwayne San Nicolas, Senator
- Dr. Gerry Perez, Vice President of the Guam Visitor's Bureau
- Catherine Castro, President of the Guam Chamber of Commerce
- Ginger Cruz, Congressional Candidate

The event is an excellent opportunity for community members to gain insights from leaders at the forefront of Guam's development and to contribute to the dialogue about our island's future.

Admission is free, and the public is encouraged to attend. For more information, please contact Mr. Xanthus Manglona at manglonax12702@gotritons.uog.edu or Ms. LyAna Crisostomo at crisostomol@gotritons.uog.edu
