

BallHers, Fuetsa and Stingrays Gray All Win on Super Saturday In Super League

The Lady Triton Super League was in full swing on Super Saturday, February 1, with three games at the UOG Calvo Field House. The BallHers dominated the Lady Tritons, Fuetsa cruised past Stingrays Black, and Stingrays Gray edged out the MVP Lady Stars in a tightly contested nightcap.

BallHers 82, Lady Tritons 47

In the opener, BallHers made easy work of the Lady Tritons, winning 82-47. The game stayed close in the first quarter, with the Lady Tritons jumping out to an early 7-2 lead. However, BallHers responded, taking a 16-11 advantage by the end of the quarter and controlling the game the rest of the way. BallHers led 41-21 at halftime, was up 59-36 after three quarters, and won 82-47.

BallHers had a balanced attack, led by Bila Aguon (18 points) and Anslie Sarsalejo (16 points). The Lady Tritons were paced by Deseha Mendiola and Amanda Uncangco, each scoring 12 points. BallHers improved to 1-1, while the Lady Tritons dropped to 1-2.

Fuetsa 90, Stingrays Black 46

In the second game, Fuetsa had little trouble with Stingrays Black after the first quarter. Similar to the Lady Tritons, Stingrays Black started strong and led for the first five minutes before Fuetsa surged ahead to take a 22-18 lead after the first quarter. Fuetsa pulled away in the second quarter, outscoring the Black 24-13 to build a 46-31 halftime lead. The gap widened in the second half, with Fuetsa leading 60-41 after three quarters and ultimately winning 90-46.

Mia San Nicolas led Fuetsa with 31 points, while A'Ani Shiroma was the top scorer for Stingrays Black with 12 points. Fuetsa remains undefeated at 2-0, while Stingrays Black falls to 0-2.

Stingrays Gray 60, MVP Lady Stars 56

The nightcap featured an intense matchup between Stingrays Gray and the MVP Lady Stars, showcasing high school all-stars and Guam national team members in a defensive battle.

The first quarter was a back-and-forth affair, with Stingrays Gray edging ahead 20-19, led by Brianna Crisostomo's 8 points, while Jia Peters kept the Lady Stars close with 9 points. In the second quarter, the Stingrays had a balanced attack and led 32-29 after 20 minutes, while only Sazzy Quinata scored for the MVPs in the 2nd period and had 10 points.

The defensive intensity increased in the third quarter, with both teams struggling offensively. The Stingrays held on to a slim 45-42 lead entering the final period. The fourth quarter remained a defensive battle, with Stingrays Gray narrowly outscoring the MVPs 15-14 to secure a hard-fought 60-56 victory.

Brianna Crisostomo led the Stingrays Gray with 19 points, while Sazzy Quintanilla (20 points) and Jia Peters (19 points) paced the MVP Lady Stars. Stingrays Gray improves to 2-1, while the MVP Lady Stars drop to 1-1.

The Lady Triton Super League returns to action on Monday, February 3 with two games:

Monday, February 3

6:30pm - Stingrays Black Vs. BallHers

8:15pm - Fuetsa Vs. MVP Lady Stars

All games are played in the UOG Calvo Field House.

T: +1 671.735.2862 E: palmerd@triton.uog.edu W: www.uog.edu
Mailing Address: 303 University Drive UOG Station Mangilao, Guam 96913
*The University of Guam is a U.S. Land Grant Institution accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN)
The University of Guam is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
The University of Guam is a Tobacco and Smoke Free Campus.*